

THE BOSTON GLOBE—TUESDAY, JULY 2, 1935

The Ale that's like an Old Friend

• ALWAYS THE SAME

FULLY AGED · TASTES BETTER

OTHER BEERS TO SUIT YOUR MOOD

• HARVARD DOUBLE ALE • BEER • PORTER •

HARVARD BREWING CO.

BOSTON LOWELL MAINE N.H. MAINE N.H.

MOOSE

Continued from the First Page

There are just around the corner, and then left for a ball in Gloucester. This is the big day of the convention. A street parade with 25,000 men and women members will be held in a parade that will be the largest Boston has seen in years. Gen. Edward J. Connelley, president of the Moose, will be the chief marshal. The parade will start at 10 o'clock. The parade will start at 10 o'clock. The parade will start at 10 o'clock.

Curley Leads Order's Work When the convention officially opened in the Butler ballroom yesterday morning, Gen. Curley was the first to speak. He said that the Moose was worthy of great praise as an organization of men and women. He said that the Moose was worthy of great praise as an organization of men and women.

Many judges are sending delegates to the convention. The convention is being held in the Butler ballroom. The convention is being held in the Butler ballroom. The convention is being held in the Butler ballroom.

There are three degrees in the Moose. The first degree is the Entered Apprentice. The second degree is the Fellowcraft. The third degree is the Master Mason. The convention is being held in the Butler ballroom.

Recognition of the presence of the order which has been recognized in the state of Massachusetts. The convention is being held in the Butler ballroom. The convention is being held in the Butler ballroom.

Donald J. Baker of Washington, D.C., is the president of the order. He is the president of the order. He is the president of the order. He is the president of the order.

Formerly, the Moose was a fraternal organization. It was a fraternal organization. It was a fraternal organization. It was a fraternal organization.

Many judges are sending delegates to the convention. The convention is being held in the Butler ballroom. The convention is being held in the Butler ballroom.

There are three degrees in the Moose. The first degree is the Entered Apprentice. The second degree is the Fellowcraft. The third degree is the Master Mason. The convention is being held in the Butler ballroom.

Recognition of the presence of the order which has been recognized in the state of Massachusetts. The convention is being held in the Butler ballroom. The convention is being held in the Butler ballroom.

Donald J. Baker of Washington, D.C., is the president of the order. He is the president of the order. He is the president of the order. He is the president of the order.

Members of the Moose with prize quilts. The convention is being held in the Butler ballroom. The convention is being held in the Butler ballroom.

Members of quilt exhibit committee. The convention is being held in the Butler ballroom. The convention is being held in the Butler ballroom.

MOOSE LEADER TELLS OF WORK

Is Devoting Whole Year to Interests of Order Dr. Buehler Averages Three Talks a Day—Lauds F. D.

By LOUIS M. LYONS

When he had the whole week of Moose on his way to Gloucester for a clubhouse dedication, Dr. Buehler, the Moose director of America's 800,000 Moose stretched out his legs in 1000 of the Hotel Statler and rested himself in an interview for the

"This is the first time I've had a chance to relax," said Dr. Buehler, who has been busy with the Moose since he took office in 1934. He has been busy with the Moose since he took office in 1934.

It has meant a year of making speeches in every corner of the country. Dr. Buehler has been busy with the Moose since he took office in 1934. He has been busy with the Moose since he took office in 1934.

He has meant a year of making speeches in every corner of the country. Dr. Buehler has been busy with the Moose since he took office in 1934. He has been busy with the Moose since he took office in 1934.

He has meant a year of making speeches in every corner of the country. Dr. Buehler has been busy with the Moose since he took office in 1934. He has been busy with the Moose since he took office in 1934.

He has meant a year of making speeches in every corner of the country. Dr. Buehler has been busy with the Moose since he took office in 1934. He has been busy with the Moose since he took office in 1934.

He has meant a year of making speeches in every corner of the country. Dr. Buehler has been busy with the Moose since he took office in 1934. He has been busy with the Moose since he took office in 1934.

He has meant a year of making speeches in every corner of the country. Dr. Buehler has been busy with the Moose since he took office in 1934. He has been busy with the Moose since he took office in 1934.

He has meant a year of making speeches in every corner of the country. Dr. Buehler has been busy with the Moose since he took office in 1934. He has been busy with the Moose since he took office in 1934.

He has meant a year of making speeches in every corner of the country. Dr. Buehler has been busy with the Moose since he took office in 1934. He has been busy with the Moose since he took office in 1934.

Romance in HOLLYWOOD!

William Powell's new screen sweetheart is today's most sensational new star discovery! Overnight this radiant girl became the talk of the screen world. What's it lucky that Bill Powell picked her for his greatest screen hit!

WILLIAM POWELL Introducing the new star LUIE RAINER

Escapade

Bill Powell as pointer of beautiful women. The girl he had from the mottled ball to be an actor's model for one glorious hour. Such as "Tropics" Big M-G-M cast includes FRANK OWEN · VIRGINIA BRUCE

A Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer Picture Directed by ROBERT Z. LEONARD

STARTS THURSDAY "CALM YOURSELF"

Crash—Continued from the First Page Mrs. James Grant, 58, began to suffer from a serious condition, suffering from a serious condition, suffering from a serious condition.

Women Suffer Shock Mrs. J. J. Davis Exhibits Interesting Group Much of the domestic activities of the women of the Moose during the convention here was devoted to the exhibition of beautiful quilts of a wide variety of design.

Among other treats at the banquet were a baby quilt made for Mrs. Davis by her grandmother, a baby quilt made for Mrs. Davis by her grandmother, a baby quilt made for Mrs. Davis by her grandmother.

WOMEN OF MOOSE SHOW OLD QUILTS Mrs. J. J. Davis Exhibits Interesting Group Much of the domestic activities of the women of the Moose during the convention here was devoted to the exhibition of beautiful quilts of a wide variety of design.

WOMEN OF MOOSE WITH PRIZE QUILTS

Members of quilt exhibit committee. Mrs. Anna Maynard of Danvers and Mrs. Helen Martin of Beverly.